

Day of Recollection

The Catholic Church, Freemasonry & The New Age Movement

Saturday, April 26, 9:00 AM–4:30 PM

Directed by

Rev. Christopher J. Crotty, CPM

Moira Noonan

Bro. Charles Madden, OFM CONV.

“Our hearts are restless until they rest in Thee, Lord.”

These words of St. Augustine reflect the deep seated human desire for spiritual things. It is as if we are interiorly programmed to seek God and the things of God. Unfortunately, because of our fallen human nature, many people are looking for the divine in all the wrong places. Some get involved in the occult and its dark practices. Other latch onto the New Age movement and its promise of enlightenment. Still others, get involved in masonry and all its enticing rituals.

During this day of recollection you will learn what the Catholic Church teaches regarding the occult, the New Age movement and freemasonry. Three experts will teach you much about these timely topics and how their beliefs and practices can lead you away from God, and even jeopardize your salvation!

During this day you will discover:

- Why “the faithful, who enroll in Masonic associations are in a state of grave sin and may not receive Holy Communion.”
- What is the real message of the New Age Movement and why people are so attracted to it
- How to identify occult practices that have crept into our culture and are being publicly promoted
- and much more
